Debs in Style:

DAME FASHION made a glamorous bow to the Debutante Cotillion and Thanksgiving Ball in the Carlton room of the Sheraton-Carlton yesterday. The ball takes place on Thanksgiving in the ballroom of the Sheraton-Park.

Yesterday, at the Carlton's fashion-luncheon, Inga presented a show where all the clothes on the runway (from Woodward and Lothrop) and the chic hairstyles of the models—by Beauty Bazaar—were beamed at this season's debutantes.

And, seated together at one large table, enjoying every billowing white ball gown and each pretty tea dance frock, were the mothers of several Washington debutantes. They were the guests of Miss Mary Stuart Price, chairman of the Debutante Cotillion and Thanksgiving Ball.

Among those present were Mrs. Charles P. Cabell, wife of the Deputy Chief of the CIA; Mrs. William Francis Bullis; Mrs. Martin W. Meyer; and Mrs. William J. Dempsey. Others included Mrs. Wendell L. Lund, Mrs. Coleman A. Mahan, Mrs. Benjamin Martin, Mrs. Harold Glendenning and Mrs. Edgar Quayle.

Add to this list Mrs. Charles W. Poole, Mrs. Horace Smithy, Mrs. Gregory Aires and Mrs. John Dwight Kendell, whose debutante granddaughter is Marilyn Blake Kendell. Also guests of Miss Price were Mrs. Nathan Twining, wife of the Air Force Chief of Staff, and Mrs. Allen Ingram Price.
